> The Practice of Turning Memorial Day Into an Occasion of Festivity Deprecated by Resolution.

Serious Accidents During the Naval Sham Battle at Night-Several Persons Berlously Injured.

MILWAUGEE, Wis., Aug. 39, -Corporal Taimer pre-empted a goodly portion of the two sessions of the Hrand Army Encampinent yesterday. The morning ses-sion had barely been called to order whon Congressman Perkins, of Kansas, claimed the recognition of the chair for a resolution by which the engarapment heartly thanked the Administration of President Harrison for the honor it had conformed upon the Grand Army in uppointing Corporal Tunner as Commis-sioner of Pensions; indorsing his man-agement of the bureau that Lad been created for the benefit of the soldiers and Grand Army wanted no more nucliary sailors of the war, and denouncing the associations, and throntoned to retire P bittor and midigatal criticisms of a purtion of the press upon his official conduct.
Applicase greated the resolution, but General Barmua of Now York, was quickly uponals fact with a substitute, loclaring that notwithstanding the assaults of an unfriendly pross, the on-campment declared its belief in the integrity of the Compassioner, and exproved its approval of his afterts to do all for the soldiers and safters of the country that the laws allowed. It was gested, however, that a committee sh be appointed to investigate the workings of the Pension office. An animated discussion of three hours duration easied. Contrade Campbell, of Knames, voiced the general sentiment as expressed by a score of delegates in the following language:

"For lifteen years we have been de-claring and others have been affering a southment that line country can never pay the dobt due to the old soldiers, but Corporal Tanuer is the first officer that has made that sentiment a practical reality. I holieve it is the fileh duty of this or cumpment to sustain him in working out that auntiment. If the Grand Army of the Ropublic over had a duty to purform loft, to the committee that is Investigate ing the workings of the Poisson Burons, or to the Commissioner himself, it is now, and we ought to pass Pres resolution. The substitute differs with it in one particular only. It expresses belief in Comrado Tannor, and would not influonce the action of the committee charged with the investigation. It may be before than an indersoment like that effored in the original resolution; but we should make our ladorsement strong enough. The original resolution expresses our sentiments exactly. If Tanner is dishon out, or has done a ty criminal act, wo will find it out when the committee maker its report. The presumption of law is that every man is annount until he is proven sion five new minuters have engaged in the work. There are several struggling will make that presumption go

CHICAGO, Aug. 30. The court-room was notovercrowded yesterday morning when Judgo McConnell fook his seat shortly after ten o'clock. It was generally ox-purted that ho would refuse to grant sopparted that he would could be grain sop-arate trials to Coughtin, Heggs, O'Sulli-van and Burke, and his decision to that offeel was no surprise, Judge McConnell said:

"I can not presume that any irr-proper avidence will be offered by the prospection in the coming trial or bendmitted by the trial judge, nor can I pre-sume that the jury will make any int-proper speculation from the evidence against any one of the prisoners that would not be fare to the other prisoners." The judge then averaged the motion for separate trials in the esseroi Coughlin, Barke, Boggs and O'Sullivan. Referring to Woodruff the judge said: "Woodruff, if appears, has made several confessions; the other defordants, therefore, could hardly have a fair trial if associated with

A TALE OF THE MORGUE.

KEEPER WHITE, OF NEW YORK, TELLS OF HIS EXPERIENCE.

The Dead House Not Particularly Un-Litentity - Moro Applications for Positions as Helpers Than There Are Vacancies, The Late Dr. Hamilton's Views.

"Look at no." The speaker was a man of medium height and rather inclined to stoutness. His hair is furning gray, but his eyes were bright and cheery and his face cloyed with the line of health. "How old am 1?"

The writer placed his age at 40 years a a venture, though 28 years would save been apparently an equally close

"That's what most people take me for, nin nearly 49 years old, and have spent he last seventeen years of my life in the ary dead house. Do I look sickly?" KHAING BAD ODORS.

Albert White, the keeper of the city rorgie, was discussing the death of loseph Fogarty, for several years the assestant keeper, and was indignantly donying the widely credited report that constant intercourse with the bodies of the dead had exit effects upon the health

"I have employed hundreds of mer and women here," continued the keeper. Someo I have had charge of this department, and have never yet had one die from the effects of handling dead bodies or being constantly among them. Some have died, it is true, but they have only themselves to blame for it. Thave had seven assistant keepers. Fogarty was the last. My first assistant was the nty man who contracted a disease here, and I am not quito sure that this is the place he caught it. One day he came down with smallpox, though we never had a case of smallpox in the building to our knowledge. He recovered and is now an attendant in the City Insane a ylum. Fogarty deal from heart diserse. He was born with it. Why, every week during the college sessions for years Dr. Jameway would have Joo go up before his class for examination. He had a triple marmuring of the heart, so he called it, and he was one of the only easest ever known. When he had his log taken off there was a consultation of twenty or thirty big doctors to decide whether they would give him ether of not. They conclined he would die if they didn't, and so they give it to him and ha recovered."

As the keeper talked the wind shifted to the cash and the breeze that brought minuture while cups to the waves that plashed under the city dead house also carried into the office a faint odor from the long, low room that extends over the river and where the bodies are kept. "Smell that odor?" went on Mr. Wlute, throwing wide open the door. "Well, that's all we ever get, and there's nothing unhealthy in that It's not alto-rether pleasant, I know, but if you duln't know what it came from you'd hardly action it. We pack the boilies in red carborate of lime. That absorbs the milmal morstiere. Then we keep the stone Hone always wet. That carries off the olor as fast as it is made. That is the way we manage to keep healthy." "But bu't work in the morgue calculated to affect a man'r mind more than

"Why should it may more than the work of an undertaker? Look at me," regained the keeper with a fouch of paringable brade in hes lones. "I think my mind case healthy as most men's, and Prespent most a lifetime here. After a man's used to the work, there is nothing excessively impleusant about it SO REPORT IN A COMMITTED SCIEDE. "I have never had a helper go itsane, If doe n't affect their moral natures in the least so Ly as Lean find out. I never know it to affect any one's particularly,

We never had a belier commit suicide, and I never kness of a man's killing. Do you have any trouble in getting "I can get more than I need. There re alway sa dozen or more mpplications i than there are vacancies, and when I discharge a man I am overrun with applications within twenty-four hours. No.

I tell you, the morgue is a healthy place to work in public opinion to the con-tent notwithstanding, and n man who takes care of humself can live here as [Jone, as he can anywhere," The Two Dr. Frank H. Hamilton, who were a national reputation during the fatal illness of Cresident Carfield, agreed with Mr. White in every particular, and The effects of a rank growth of vege-

Meeting of the Ohio State Democratic Convention at Dayton.

James E. Campbell for Governor and Full Ticket Placed in Nondination.

A Short, Concise and Pointed Platform, Chiefly Devoted to the Question of the Tariff.

DAYTON, D., Aug. 28. The Democratic State Convention med in the skaling rink and was called to order at 10.20 a. m. by Mr. Norton, of Sencey, churman of the State central committee. Rev. Mr. McFallan read from a slip in his hands an appropriate prayer.

Mr. Norton Congrainful de the conven tion that if was sout here by no loss. The delegates are not ticket-of-leave non-They are not here to choose a dictator to the State Legisterre, nor a dom-agogue, nor a juggler. We are not here to crown a military here, who would resurrect the Issues of hate." In short, (lovernor Forakor gets a terristo besting from the strong-voiced, cloquant charman of the State committee. His obsquent but severe accargament of Fornker was received with lively satisfaction. The speaker's reference to Grover Cleveland elicited the most heart;

chooring.

The report of the committee on permanent organization as read by Hon. O. J. Bosgrovo, of Chichin da was soon disposed of.

Chairman Harter was then introduced He came forward and the much-talkedof keynote was fluing to the breeze. But Harter's voice was in very bad shape, and when at first his husky tones could hardly be heard ten beet from the stage, the hot, weary delegates softled back in their sents. When Mr. Harter had flaished his speech a binner was brought forward, which was to be presented by the ladies of Columbus to the county that the haties of Comming to the county in a showed the loggest Democratic gates at the last Presidential closeron. The henor foil to Butler County, the home of Campbell, one of the candidates for the Hovernorship, General McMahon, chairman of the General McMahon, chairman of the committee on resolutions, then appeared on the platform, be using in her hand the discharation of principles of the Domos-racy of the State. The sami, in preface, that he wished to say the positiony that ho would soon read was the manifered expression of his remailled that it were a harmonicus gathering that by slyed this document, and that the result of their labors was a limit, renesse statement as to what the Derioeracy behave in "This Is lightly" said he, "and requires but fow words. It takes a profix and tedions mothod when you want to say something that you do not believe." The platform is as follows:

The Democracy of the a in convention de-sembled approxi the de landson of principles and by the Sational Democracy in St. Louis made by the National Democracy in St. Louis in 1888, and especially that part of all demanding poduction of truth laxes.

2. We regard trusts, as whatever forth organized as the followed tesselt of our present mail system, and we demand the repent of all mail times that enable them to extent from the people exorbit and press to the production control.

3. We main acknowledge the great delit of gratified the Nation of set to the hences of the late way and we do declate in law woll just, thereigh and on table per set if we.

Then came the fight of the day-nordprefamey followed the announcement, Hon. Sam F. Bunt, of Cincinnati, came forward to place ii, the rare the name of James E. Campbell. General C. M. Au-derson, of Darke County, seconded own uttairs.

Campbell's nomination.

Martin A. Foran, of Cloveland, was grooted with appliance as he came for-ward to present the name of Virgil P. Kline, of Cleveland. The speech of Mr. Foran was ampressive and effective. The name of his candidate was received with loud applause, but it came mostly from the Cuyahoga delegation.

Dougherry, of Hardin, placed the name of Lawrence T. Scal nefora the convention, and after a n usleal interlade, the bulleting began. The roll of counties whereafted and Adams led out with six votes for Campbell. There was a great deal of cheering as the votes were granuted. When Hamilton County was tracked Prece was trouble in polling the delegation, but the matter was fluidly selfied with Campbell, 75; Kline, 2; Nonk, 8, Realing this distributions.

Pending this disturiones, several votes clanged to Neal. Good disorder re-sulted, and the Chan fluidy announced that he definite result could be reached thems-has at last been cribed. A great buzzfrom four thousand pairs of tips ho-ging, the band shikes up bethe Camp-bolls are Coming? The treef authorize rises to its feet to breathe easy, while the mon are footing up that Ohes koop, hard at work, but it is ascordanced by defi accountants that Campbell lacked or the votes of a nonmation. Augure Camery furchedly consults, and the amountoopment is made that there is fit yours, that outs Carabbell on ton are to be had right there. Then such an uproar and pando-montum misues as seem sufficient to raise the roof. Campbell has got it; he has won the prize, and it was concessed that Canado 14 title was clear. But troubles seem near. Changes are being made to Neal. For a time this had paralized the Campbell cohorts, but they soon rallied. Norton tries to restore or der, and Hamilton is polled on a clamge of vote. Terwrence County changes her vote to 18 solul for Neal. Other counties which a moment ago seemed to be Camp bell's is now swaying to Noal. Hamiltor County, watch had changed to 73 fo lampbell and 2 for Neal, now goes back o her original vote of 65 for Campbell, for Kline and 8 for Neal. Confusion worse confounded reigns, Countles are changing back and forth. The voto stands: Whole number of votos, 789; Kline, 199; Neal, 292; Campbell, 388. No eliaice Again the roll of counties is called and the second ballet is begun, but it was a close shave and find the changes not been made the quickly a second ballet would not have been necessary. As it is Campbell and Neal must again lock horns, and this that it seems to be a duel to the death.

The second hallot resulted: Whole number of votes 780%. Kline 93; Neat 279; Campbell 397%. Campbell is nominated and the convention gues wild. The band plays "The Campbells are Coming" an half a dozon stap couples are walking to the a great occasion ms and C. M. Anderson of Greenville R. R. Halden of Cleveland, and J. A. Me-Mahon of Daylon, are appointed a com-mittee to notify Mr. Campbell of his normation and to escore him to the hall. A ranges of 15 minutes is taken. A the conclusion of the recess Neal, Campbell and Klino appeared in re-specto to the invitation. Campbell re-ceived congratulations and the offers assurances of regard, and finally Norlon assurances of regard, and finally Notion presented him as the next Governor of Ohio is spito of the power of the Republican party. Mr. Campboll's remarks were devoted almost entirely to arranging the administration of the present Governor which he styled the most proflig to and importous that the State of Ohio was ever cursed with Presing from State to National affairs, he said that the Sinta by National affairs, he said that the first duty of the party was to educate the people on tariff reform. This subject was received with hearty approbation, oliciting greater appliance than any thing the speaker had said. Neat followed Campbell. To say that he ract with 4 warm reception would be patting it unid, indeed. His remark that Campboil would not do more for himself than be would do for him captured overy than ho would up for him captured over pinca is the hall, and the sentiment was cheered to the echo. Virgit P. Klein also had his say. It was needly on their reform, which he do-chared will yet make Ohio solidly and torm (neatly Democratic.

Then the regular business was resumed and the following communitions completed the ticket; For Lieutenant-Governor William V. Marquis, of Bellefontaine for Judge of Supreme Court, Martin D. Rolloit, of Marietta; for State Treasurer, W. E. Jaden, of Guernsey County; for School Commissioner, Charles C. Miller, of Patrean County: for Alternoy-Gen-or C. Jesso M. Lowis, of Urbain; Moni-bor Board of Public Works, Frank Baynalds, of Cheinnati; Clork of Sapremo Court, I. J. C. Schumacher, of Tiffin. For Lieutenant-Hovernor Marquis Ind on the first ballot, and before the second was concluded by was manimously dochiped the nomineo for Lieutemant-Gov-orner. Hon, Martin D, Follett was nom-unfed for Supreme Judge on the second ballof, and the remainder of the ticket was completed without much friction, not more than one ballot being taken in opera-house. There was a large attendance, A. Rickets, of Scranton, was chosen temperary chairman, and four tomporary secretaries were chosen.

The committee on order of business, among other things, reported that all resolutions should be referred to the committee without debate. The report was adopted The committee on permanent organizafina reported Roy, W. R. Covert, of Westmoreland County, for chairman; a list of vice-providents and four soore-tarios. The report was adopted. After a brief speech. Chairman Rickots appointed the committee on resolutions and fin mee, and recess was then taken antil two o'clock.
